This Astrological Child Report has been designed as a guide for Tara's parents, with a special commitment: to help with Tara's growth and cultural upbringing, to emphasize and strengthen her assets, and to alert the parents to mistakes or possible problems that Tara could face in her life.

Chapter 1 describes Tara the way she really is (position of the Sun), and the way her personality is expressed (Ascendant sign). Chapters 2 and 3 describe the influences linked to her mother and father respectively, which DOES NOT mean a description of their personalities, but the way Tara sees them, experiences them, and which characteristics she takes from each one. In the astrological chart of a brother or sister, the description of parents could be different due to the individual's perspective. Chapter 4 completes the sequence of the description of Tara's temperament, focusing her mind, her attitude toward education, and her intellectual capacity.

Chapter 5 describes Tara's destiny, her vocation, her profession, and the probability of success in the material world. In order to get an appropriate view of Tara's vocational possibilities, it will be necessary to combine what is in this chapter plus what is in Chapter 1 and any other relevant information in the report.

Chapter 6 analyzes the conditions of Tara's health; some tendencies or possibilities to physical diseases are mentioned, which DOES NOT mean that Tara is going to suffer from them, one by one. It does mean that those are her weak points and she is inclined to those possibilities. As a complement, some recommendations for Tara to have better nutrition are mentioned. PLEASE CONSULT A PHYSICIAN REGARDING ANY PHYSICAL PROBLEMS THAT YOUR CHILD MAY HAVE!!! FOLLOW YOUR PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE AND ANY MEDICATION OR THERAPY THAT HE/SHE RECOMMENDS!!! ASTROLOGY SHOULD NEVER BE USED AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR PROFESSIONAL MEDICAL ATTENTION!!!

Finally, Chapter 7 describes the astrological influence of the outer planets which affect all the children who were born in the same period of years, producing common ideas and behaviors and subsequent generational characteristics.

It is probable that you may find some contradictions in the report; this is because some planets may be beneficial in a certain area of life while other planets may be less helpful or even harmful. This means that Tara may have both positive and negative experiences in the same area. You need to draw on your intuition and common sense to come to your own conclusions. But remember that every child, no matter the sign he/she was born in, needs LOVE in order to grow up in the right way.

*** Chapter 1 ***

General description of the child: essential nature and personality. Physical body and childhood.

Sun in Gemini:

The Gemini child is very curious. All facets of life fascinate her, and she loves to explore nature. Tara quickly learns how to talk and walk. Her parents must watch her carefully because she often strays from view. She needs to wander, to walk, to know, to communicate. She gets bored quite easily, and needs to develop multiple interests. She is the kind of person who can do many things at the same time. Any kind of repression or obstruction of her freedom could provoke an emotional depression which could be very difficult for her to overcome. If she needs to be confined to a small space, she should have many toys, books, a TV and someone to talk to. She is the kind of child who makes people nervous, because she is in constant motion and nothing stops her from talking. It is not a good idea to tell her that it would be much better if she tried to behave as other children who react slower and not as imaginatively. The challenge is to make her reduce the speed of her life without frustrating her basic nature.

She is very sociable, bright, precocious, and always asking questions. She is very clever, and she excels in intellectual activities: mathematics, literature, languages, etc. She does not have trouble learning unless the subject becomes boring for her. Her hands are expressive and agile and she can easily mimic. It would be a good idea to give her a magic game as a present, in order to develop the natural talent she possesses. Sometimes she exaggerates, lies, and makes fun of people. She has a very good imagination, often embellishes the truth, and even believes her own fantasies. The Gemini child must be taught to tell the truth and to develop her fantasies in writing. If Tara does not learn how to express herself without inhibitions, she could become very introverted when grown-up, as a way of self-protection. She is never satisfied with one activity at a time and is able to do homework while listening to the radio.

Her main problems are: lack of patience, lack of perseverance to get deeper into detail, and being too easily influenced by others. As this child grows, parents should get to know their child's friends. As a youngster, she will be always talking on the phone, going out with different friends every week and changing her mind about her future career. Her parents should not be worried about this, because their child is one of the smartest persons in the zodiac, and she will surely impress everyone with her many facets, brightness, and eloquence. She will be always naive and childish; for this reason, she must learn the importance of responsible behavior.

Virgo Rising Sign:

Tara's physical body can be thin and delicate. Her movements will be soft and quiet, though her eyes will be vivacious and will express great intelligence. Her curiosity and her desire to know everything is evident very early; while in the crib, she will observe and study everything that is going on around her. As Tara grows, she will show a great appreciation for details and will be very particular about her preferences. Though her mind is bright, her big disadvantage is her shyness. This astral influence makes her hide her real potential because she feels inferior or insecure. Parents must help Tara work on getting this off her mind. She will not assert her needs easily. She will find some obstacles in her path during her life. Her great sensitivity makes her close up and retreat into herself when a problem comes up. If her Sun (as shown above) is located in a strong sign, Aries, Leo or Sagittarius, this strength will rarely be shown in her personality; Tara can live an intense inner life, and this may not be seen on the outside. She has to be taught, in a delicate way, how to show her feelings, how to trust her own decisions and how to act appropriately. Most likely she will analyze each step of her behavior, sometimes only in her imagination. She may use illness as a way to get attention or to ask for protection or affection. If her parents always respond when Tara does this, she can become an hypochondriac in the future.

Her childhood is ruled by Mercury and can be full of experiences which will increase her knowledge and intelligence. She will be attracted to the sciences in general, and will always be looking for logical answers to every question. Her family may suffer financial or emotional instabilities, which could affect her sensitivity in a deep way; her unconscious could retain this and transform it into fears or phobias in the future. Parents must remember this: no matter how strong her Sun sign is, this ascendant makes her very sensitive, fragile and easily suggestible. Usually, Tara's fears are the fears of the adults who are around her. The best medicine is affection and logical, coherent behavior. Tara's insecurities are most strongly manifested during adolescence; she finds security and balance as an adult.

*** Chapter 2 ***

Maternal figure: emotions, feelings, capacity to love

Moon in Aquarius:

Tara will have spontaneous emotions; they will be free and unconventional. Her great rebelliousness toward everything will make her break free of every limitation she finds. Her heart is free and her mind looks towards the future, which may sometimes cause her to be misunderstood. She will be very curious and sociable. Tara will love meeting all kinds of people and her friendships will be greatly varied. Tara will feel very close to people who are "different" and nontraditional. She will be more mental than emotional, and her feelings may change rapidly.

Her mother will probably be far from traditional, will be a friend rather than a mother to her, and will let her make her own decisions and rule her own life. She will love her freedom and will teach her to appreciate hers. This may lead to a disinterested and rational attitude about her feelings; Tara will think that she will always be able to control her emotions and will feel uncomfortable showing affection. She will have great creativity and inventive talent which can be expressed both in art and in the sciences.

Moon in 5th house:

She will be romantic and charming, which is why she will have an adventurous love life, always looking for the "right" match. Tara will have great charisma and a poetic imagination. She will have great creative ability, which will be evident in all her activities. As a mother, she will be very tender and will teach her children to be kind and to show their feelings, although she can be a bit possessive.

Moon Square Jupiter:

Tara will probably have an overprotective mother; as a consequence, she will react with a kind of unworried, lazy, and loose attitude throughout her life. She will have to learn to control her attitude about money, as she can be a spendthrift. Tara will tend to enjoy everything, which can drain her physical energies. Tara is attracted to the easy life and may not assume all her responsibilities.

Moon Trine Mercury:

Tara will have a sharp, imaginative, logical, and fair mind; she will express herself in a harmonious way. She will be a sensible girl, solving her own problems without anxiety. Tara will be able to understand the feelings of others, which gives her the ability to lead people or to become an orator.

Moon Trine Mars:

Tara will be ambitious, determined, firm, and quick to react. She will have great physical strength which will help her overcome any health problem. Her emotions will be very intense and will always be handled in a positive and constructive way. Tara will prefer to work alone because she could become very impatient with people who do not conform to her rhythm. She will also be frank and straight-to-the-point in expressing all her feelings.

Moon Sextile Uranus:

Tara will be spontaneous, free, and creative. She will not feel comfortable with emotional bonds. She will also dislike any restrictions on the expression of her personality. Tara will be intelligent and will always be interested in new ideas. She will be attracted to original things, as well as the occult sciences and research. She will probably travel and also change her residence many times.

Venus in Taurus:

Tara's love will be stable and long lasting. She will be tender and loving, and will be very attached to the people she loves, even when she has quarrels or misunderstandings. Tara will develop a strong possessiveness, not only toward things, but also in her personal relationships. She will tend to enjoy the good life and pleasures in general, and her attraction to food and sweets can cause weight problems. Her charisma will draw admirers who want to please her, and, as a consequence, she can become lazy. Tara must learn to get the things she wants through her own efforts.

Venus in 9th house:

Tara will have an intense desire for knowledge and will look for activities which could expand her emotional world. She will be philosophical, religious, and will love to travel. Tara will probably fall in love abroad or may marry a person from another country. She will have strong intuition and will be a cultured person. Tara will love to study and expand her general skills, and as a result of this, Tara will have an urbane, cultivated manner.

Jupiter in Scorpio:

Tara will love mysteries and stories of suspense. She will be an eternal researcher, always questioning and seeking knowledge. She will also show a big interest in the supernatural; as an adult Tara may have inclinations toward the spiritual and mystical. She will have confidence in herself and will be very persistent in working for the things she wants.

Jupiter in 2nd house:

Tara will be successful in business and will earn lots of money; however, she must learn discipline and thrift, to avoid many potential problems. She could earn a living from different investments, import-export business, traveling, stock exchange, etc. Tara will have many possessions, which will make her feel secure and protected, and at the same time, she will be very generous and will share them with others.

Jupiter Conjunction Pluto:

Tara will have the capacity to live her life to the fullest. She will work desperately to achieve her ideals and goals, and may succeed in leadership positions during her life. Her behavior and emotional expression will be intense and sometimes a bit exaggerated. Tara may make enemies due to her frankness and strong assertiveness. She must learn how to moderate her attitude and to direct her dynamic strength in a creative and positive way.

*** Chapter 3 ***

Paternal figure: authority, power, capacity to assume responsibilities and to defend oneself in life.

Sun in 10th house:

Tara will be very ambitious; she will aspire to a high position in life and she will control her own destiny. Tara was born not to follow others, but to direct her own steps, and will show difficulty and rebelliousness in following any kind of authority. The relationship with her father is very important for her, and in a way, will determine her future ambitions. Her father will be well known in social life, but this does not mean that Tara will follow in her father's footsteps. From him Tara will learn to fight for her own goals, to act with decision and self-confidence, and to be loyal to her own principles. This astrological position will bring material success, social recognition, and a higher status in Tara's life. Her great energy and pride will make her an invincible person.

Sun Trine Saturn:

Tara will gain great success in life due to her disciplined work and constant effort. She will be constant, faithful, responsible, and serious about her goals. She will have great concentration and a good sense of organization. Generally, her life will be orderly, healthy, and long. Tara will deeply admire her father, who probably will be a very successful person and will possess many characteristics that she will want to embrace as an adult. Tara will always be a person everybody can trust.

Sun Trine Pluto:

Tara will have very intense and dedicated inner motivations, which could put her in a leadership position. She will be passionate about the things she likes, and possibly a fanatic about her ideas. Tara will not be satisfied with the status quo and will work hard to transform things into her ideal. She will have great concentration, will power, and a good capacity to throw off any illness or weakness. Tara will be very interested in occult sciences and the mysteries of life, and will develop excellent perceptive abilities.

Saturn in Libra:

Tara will need a lot of time to make decisions and, though she will seem to be dominated by indecision, finally she will make the right choice. She will be very reserved and will probably have some problems with her social life. Though Tara will have few friends, they will be there forever. Tara will have a great sense of justice and will be a good judge or lawyer. She will always be very diplomatic and will express her opinions in a proper way. This astrological position can delay marriage or bring a serious person as a mate.

Saturn in 2nd house:

Tara can be raised in a family where everybody is concerned about money or experiencing financial problems. As a result, Tara will be very much concerned with these matters. She will be cautious and will always be trying to save money, because she will be afraid of being without it. This astrological position does not mean that Tara will not be able to earn money, but that she will do it slowly and gradually. Tara must work hard and persistently to reach her goals; she will have to overcome her anxieties. Tara can earn money from real estate investments.

Mars in Libra:

Tara will have a strong feeling for justice and will fight against everything she considers unfair or inhumane. Tara will be very comfortable working with other people; she will feel that the results will be better working with a team, although sometimes she could be jealous and competitive. It is very important for her to learn not to be so dependent on other people, or she will lose confidence in herself and will have trouble making decisions in the future. Tara will be a charming, generous, sociable, and persuasive person. She will enjoy people and new ideas. Negatively, Tara can show a tendency to laziness; sometimes she will not make enough of an effort to get what she wants. As she is so sweet and charismatic, sometimes she will let others do things for her instead of doing them herself. It is very important for Tara to have physical exercise as an outlet for the energy flowing through her body; this may help to combat or avoid the tendency to laziness. Her humor and sensitivity are stimulated with music and colors; soft light and harmonious surroundings will balance her bad mood quickly, and relieve depression.

Mars in 2nd house

Tara will have many ambitions and will work intensely to get everything she wants in the material world. If she does not get what she wants almost immediately, Tara could become very aggressive and impatient. She will earn a lot of money, but she will also spend more, being generous and a spendthrift. Tara will love to start enterprises which challenge her, wherein she can use her physical and mental energy. She will feel great satisfaction from whatever she achieves through her own work and effort, so parents must not try to solve Tara's life, but give her tasks and challenges along the way. Tara must learn to be careful with money; otherwise, due to bad management, she could experience many financial crises.

Mars Sextile Uranus:

Tara will be a hard worker and will show great enthusiasm, vitality, physical strength, and creativity. She will be self-controlled and will have a very positive attitude about life. Tara will solve her problems very easily, reacting with accuracy and efficacy. To excel in any field, Tara must feel that she can move and express herself freely. Tara will be attracted to new, original, and revolutionary ideas, but she will reject any kind of violence and fanaticism.

*** Chapter 4 ***

Mentality: intelligence, studies and capacity for communication.

Mercury in Gemini:

Tara's mind will be active and restless. She will always be looking for change. Her imagination and intellect must be stimulated in order to fully develop her intelligence. Her versatile mind will make her interested in different things at the same time; most likely she will be doing two or three things simultaneously, but she will run the risk of not having good results. Tara must learn discipline and perseverance. She can excel in her studies without much effort, thanks to her quick and logical mind. It is probable that Tara gets bored with almost everything, so she will always be looking for new things. Her communication will be skillful and without inhibition. She will have a great need to express her ideas and also to know those of others; that is why she will be talkative and always asking questions. Tara will show an ability to learn languages, and will also have a good sense of humor. Her sharp mind will make her a master of mimicry. She will always find the funny side of everything. Tara may also show an ability for writing, which would make her suited for professions connected with communication, journalism, traveling, photography, languages, and sales.

Mercury in 10th house:

Tara will be very communicative, outgoing, successful, and extroverted. She will change jobs many times and probably she will have more than one job at a time. Her profession will be very important; she will be attracted by politics or any field which puts her in touch with people. Tara will be very good at communicating her own ideas and could excel as an orator. Her always sharp and active mind will give her the ability to organize and handle people. In order to achieve her goals, Tara could become overambitious or even selfish. She will surely excel in any profession she chooses, given her intelligence and wealth of ideas. The influence of her father will be extremely important in the development of his mind.

Mercury Opposition Uranus:

Tara will have an alert and active mind. Her ideas and thoughts will be atypical, eccentric, and uniquely her own. She will rebel against limitations to her freedom and anything she considers to be an imposition. Tara will be restless, nervous, arrogant, and very particular about her likings and choices. Her opinions will be shocking and unprejudiced, and she will not care what others think of them. Most likely, she will not concentrate on one subject for very long. Her restless mind keeps her changing and moving constantly, with the risk of leaving things unfinished. She will enjoy challenging others' ideas and will be very bright and sharp. Tara must learn to be more relaxed in order to avoid nervous exhaustion.

Mercury Trine Mars:

Tara will have a restless mind and will never stop learning. She will be a practical, quick, perceptive, and courageous person; she will detect the weaknesses of the others quite easily. Tara will be very creative and could excel in writing or any other manual activity. She will be very firm and serious about her decisions without being aggressive. Her mind will never rest, so she must always stay active.

Scorpio on 3rd house cusp:

Tara will be a very intuitive and inquiring person. In spite of her interest in science and research, her mind will work better through her hunches than through her logical deductions. She will be able to feel inner or hidden emotions of others quite easily, to discover lies without any real proof, and also to have innumerable experiences of paranormal perception, like telepathy. Tara could be a bit shy and reserved; she will not talk very much about herself, and if her feelings are hurt or someone offends her, she could hide deep resentment inside. She must learn to express herself more freely and to deal with her aggressiveness in a constructive way. If she has some aptitude for literature, she could excel as a writer in the future.

*** Chapter 5 ***

Destiny: vocation, profession, probability of success and social recognition.

Gemini MC

Tara's destiny will lead her down different roads, seeking constant change, and she will probably have more than one profession. Her great intelligence will allow her to excel in everything she starts, even though she may not have received a complete education in the subject. She will have nice behavior, a good memory, a persuasive capability, and talent; but boredom with routine and inconstancy will be her worst problems. That is why Tara will need to choose a profession that will allow her to be in contact with different people, to go to different places, and to follow different customs. Communication should never be missing from her life, as it will be what is most fulfilling for her. Also, people can have a strong influence on her, and some of her changes could come from her family, lover, or friends.

Her career choice could be one of these professions (or all of them at the same time!): journalist, speaker, traveler, writer, business woman, professor, comedian, language teacher, driver, translator, art critic, etc.; and any other profession which would allow her to be an intermediary.

Her brother or a sister (if any) will play a paternal role in her life, and in the future, they may be in business together or associated professionally somehow. Relatives and friends born under the sign of Gemini will influence her destiny.

*** Chapter 6 ***

Health: probable physical problems and recommendations for diet and nutrition.

Sun in Gemini:

Gemini rules the lungs, the bronchi, the trachea, the oxygenation of the blood, the arms, the hands, and the shoulders. Generally, Tara will be very nervous, restless, and inconsistent with regard to diets or treatments in general. The common problems will be colds, asthma, flu, hoarseness, and coughing provoked by nervousness. Parents will have to watch that Tara does not get out of bed when she is ill, since she will be very impatient and will want to go back to her everyday activities, which could cause a relapse. Tara should be aware of changes in the weather or seasons, which could provoke coughing or allergies. Most of her physical problems will originate from the exhaustion of her nervous system. She will also have to be very careful with her diet, as she will be very irregular about meals, always eating at different hours. She will also have to sleep regular hours.

In order to be healthy, Tara will have to consider the following advice: she will have to try to avoid nervous exhaustion; she will have to breathe a lot of pure air and also participate in outdoor activities; she will have to practice sports; she will have to avoid smoking or being in stuffy places or those with contaminated air; she will have to limit her intake of meat and eat soybeans and soy products; she will have to have almost a vegetarian diet, eating only fish and poultry; she will have to stay in touch with people, expressing herself freely with everybody she will have to have a phone very close to her); she will have to eat regular meals at regular hours; she will have to practice a relaxation routine; and mainly, she will have to avoid people and situations which make her nervous.

Saturn in Libra:

This astrological position could bring a poor condition of filtration to remove the urea from the blood, renal, or urinary retention, obstruction in the kidneys because of the presence of calcium stones, suppression of the urine, or blood disease caused by renal malfunction.

Aquarius on 6th house cusp:

The short term problems related to Tara's health could originate from nervous exhaustion, stress, corporal electricity, and the lack of B Vitamins. It will be very important for Tara to learn how to relax and to let her neurons rest.

In order to prevent any problems, she should include in her diet: all the legumes, non-refined grains, walnuts and seeds, asparagus, corn, lentils, watercress, soy, cabbage, coconut, grapes, lemon, pineapple, peanuts, wheat germ, bee pollen, egg yolk, and all foods rich in the B vitamins.

The long term problems related to Tara's health could originate from the lack of appropriate oxygenation of the body, the lack of Vitamins A and D, and magnesium. The most common problem area will be the circulatory system, causing deficient irrigation to arms and legs, palpitations, and heart problems in general.

She should follow the diet mentioned above, plus: celery, carrots, broccoli, alfalfa, lettuce, green and red peppers, spinach, sweet potato, tomato, fresh or dry peach, cherry, apple, lemon, orange, fresh cheese, yogurt, and sunflower seeds. She should avoid fried food or fatty food; she should not drink alcohol or smoke, and also should get plenty of physical exercise.

*** Chapter 7 ***

Generational influence: ideas and feelings common to your child's age group.

Uranus in Sagittarius:

Tara belongs to a generation of people who will try to uncover the secrets of the Universe through investigation and hard work. They will be interested in space voyages and every kind of scientific discovery. Also, they will be very optimistic and youthful. The free expression of their ideas will be very important; Tara, together with her peers, will develop new philosophical and religious ideas which will rule the future. Tara will like to travel and meet people of foreign countries, extending her horizons and knowledge. Most likely she will also be a bit skeptical, daring, and rebellious.

Uranus in 3rd house:

Tara will be very intelligent and her ideas will be unusual. She will be tuned in to her era and will be very inventive and scientific. She will communicate her ideas in an unconventional manner and she could excel in writing or speaking. Her sharp mind will allow her to be a very good investigator. Tara will be very different from her brothers and/or sisters; it is probable that she could experience unexpected and abrupt periods of distance from them. Tara's ideas will not be totally understood by the people around her (neighbors, relatives, etc.) and she could suffer ridicule and disapproval. It is also probable that Tara will be very inconsistent with her studies and she may change schools many times.

Neptune in Sagittarius:

Tara's generation will seek to discover new religious and philosophical values. They will inquire deeply into the different meanings of life. It is also probable that during this period many laws and educational programs will be changed. As a part of this generation, Tara will be very interested in being a member of reform groups; she will be inclined towards new ideas, will search for a universal religion, and will get to know different cultures. It is also probable that she could meet false prophets, but her strong intuition will tell her who is who.

Neptune in 4th house:

Tara could experience many changes of residence and become a little confused about her own roots. Perhaps her parents or ancestors were from a foreign country or some other uncommon circumstances will occur in the domestic arena. Tara will have difficulties stabilizing her homelife, and she will only find peace and harmony inside her own self. It is also probable that one of her parents could have an escapist attitude toward problems, which could cause doubts and insecurities in her.

Neptune Sextile Pluto:

Tara will have great creative and artistic ability. Also, she will fight against injustice and will try to reform the legislative system. Her intuition will be powerful and will compel her to study and uncover the secrets of nature. Most likely, her ideas about freedom or the way she will use her mystic knowledge will not be totally understood; however, her interest in this matter will not vanish.

Pluto in Libra:

Tara's generation will be concerned about the development of human relationships and their communications. They will not be very selfish and will understand the importance of listening to others, always seeking balance and harmony between different points of view. They will be interested in psychology and sociology, and will propose new styles of association, in business as well as in personal relationships, trying to find better understanding and happiness. Their policies will lead to peace treaties between different countries, making possible the avoidance of the arms race or political power struggles. As a part of this group, Tara will show a great love of beauty and harmony; she will have a strong sense of justice and well-developed social instincts.

Pluto in 2nd house:

Tara will have different sources of income, becoming wealthy from her talent for financial management. She will be a collector of material objects and could treat the people she loves as possessions, trying to dominate them and being extremely jealous. Tara should learn to be more cautious with her ambitions and less miserly with her finances; otherwise, her economic obsessions could cause problems in her emotional life.
