 Chapter 1 *****

Your individuality. Your personality.
Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Virgo

You were born under the sign of VIRGO and your ruling planet is Mercury, which endows you with outstanding mental qualities.

Your Sun sign is MUTABLE and this will impel you to function as a COMMUNICATOR, either in thought or action. You won't feel comfortable in a leadership position, but rather in a subordinate position or service. One of your functions is to help others to solve their problems.

Virgo is an EARTH sign and this makes you realistic, practical and concrete. You will have a strong desire to accomplish material goals and need to feel that your career or enterprises permit you to grow a little more each year.

You are shy, intelligent and analytical and want to have everything in order in your surroundings. You have a strong practical sense of life and can easily solve your problems and tasks. You are very responsible and industrious, but may lack a sense of pride, which will not cause you to valorize your own efforts, though. Waiting for recognition from others could result in deceptions and could easily hurt your feelings. You give excessively to others and because of this you forego many of your personal ambitions.

Your natural shyness allows you to have a very rich inner life with very deep feelings. You are very loyal with your friendships; they probably will not be many, but they will be lasting. You have great ability to analyze, see the details of each situation and want to make everything perfect. You are very demanding with yourself and your nervousness could affect your health.

You were born to study, to develop your intelligence, to organize, to solve problems, to put in order, and mainly, to serve. One of your missions is to see that those around you discover and develop their potential. Your ability to analyze and see the details will teach others to be more penetrating and perfective. You were born to cure, to alleviate and solve material problems as well as those involving health.

To evolve, your spirit needs to learn to develop greater self-confidence. You will have to conquer your fears, your insecurity and the shyness that immobilizes you at times, as well as the tendency to hypochondria, to generate your health problems and to limit your own freedom. You should avoid skeptical, somber and cold attitudes, or the tendency to exaggerate, criticize and being negative. The expression of your personality could be limited by hysterics and diseases or the tendency to think too much about things and not to act on them.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Sagittarius

Others see you as a lively, happy and very spontaneous person. You leave a share of your humor and friendliness in every place you visit.

You have a very jovial and youthful attitude that will make you appear younger than you actually are. You are very curious and want to know everything that is going on around you. This allows you to act freely and to easily relate to people. A bit naive and easily influenced, you have to try to surround yourself with positive people. Because you like adventure, you quickly get excited about new projects, but also abandon them just as fast, if you get bored or lose interest. The same could happen in your romantic as well as your professional life. You will have to learn to control impulsiveness to avoid future problems. You are idealistic and support just causes. You also like to take trips, especially to strange and distant places.

The profession you choose will have to stimulate your desire for expansion and growth, satisfy your desire for conquest, recognition and finding pleasure. Avoid very sedentary and routine jobs, or those where you will be submitted to very limited authority.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Gemini

Your emotions are rapid, changing and not very lasting. Your mind is the filter for all of your feelings and this could make you detached, cold, or distant. You have to learn to express your emotions not only with words. You easily get bored with people and passive activities or routine. Your curious mind longs for surprises, novelties and intelligent responses from others, which not always happens. Because of your restlessness, you may change jobs frequently or make decisions without much thought.

You have an exceptional mind that combines intelligence with fantasies, which permits you to conceive very original ideas or solutions. You like to converse and express what you feel openly, and your curious mind enables you to easily socialize.

Subconsciously, you have a strong desire to express yourself and to learn more. You may have taken many trips in previous lives. Your occupation may have entailed delivering news, documents or messages from person to person, which has generated your immense curiosity and anxiety today. You were not accustomed to a stable home and family or an obligation that kept you quiet in the same place, and consequently, you have difficulty finding satisfaction in very routine or steady occupations in the present.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to communicate, either verbally or in writing, the need to connect, know, intermediate, teach, learn or trade.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Libra

You have a balanced and harmonious mind and try to express your ideas in a proper and delicate way. Because of your deep sense of justice, you are not quick to make decisions. You analyze both sides of any situation in order to avoid any mistakes or unfairness. Your indecision, on even trivial things, tends to bother you a lot and also will bother the people around you. You are very moderate in everything you do and rarely will go for an extreme situation.

Your way of communicating is soft, refined and friendly. Your voice has a soft, warm tone and will refrain from using coarse and offensive language. You get angry when arguments, violence or aggressiveness occur. If you are put in a hostile situation, you will try to escape or will hide within yourself. You have a strong sense of aesthetics which will be shown in your artistic abilities. You are very sociable and could excel in public relations, diplomacy, law or as a counselor or umpire. You have a complacent attitude toward others and most likely will postpone many of your initiatives, if they create a lack of harmony. You could be a bit lazy or inconstant with your studies and need some support from others to successfully achieve your educational goals.

 Chapter 2 *****

Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths.
Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 9th house:

Your success is related to long trips, the study of other cultures, languages, philosophy, law and religion. You are anxious to learn and this will cause you to study as well as travel world wide. You are likely to reach material success in a different country than where you were born. If not, you definitely will settle in another place, tend to make many trips and will be in touch with people abroad. Perhaps your father or other family member came from another country.

On the other hand, you have a great sense of justice and if you study the law, would make a very good professional. You also would be very successfully in any educational matter. You like to investigate and learn about nature as well as abstract ideas. Your religious feeling will be intense and you are very devoted to your beliefs.

Sun Square Moon:

There is a natural conflict between your ego and your emotions. You are very susceptible and tend to overreact to everything. Sometimes you may consider your individuality, your personal objectives and your profession more important, and at other times you give more significance to your feelings, your relationships and your family life, without being able to easily conciliate both areas of your life. Emotional problems could interfere with your concentration on daily tasks. It also may be difficult for you to work and to attend your household at the same time.

This conflict can be surpassed by conciliating the feminine and masculine side of your personality. You will have to learn to make decisions, to assume responsibilities and to be consistent without letting it affect the way you feel. You will have to control your changing moods, especially when you become negative or pessimistic, and mainly, you have to avoid feeling sorry for yourself. When you acknowledge this destructive tendency in yourself, you will be able to grow and overcome this astrological influence.

Sun Trine Saturn:

You are responsible and have a strong sense of loyalty that is not altered with time. You rely on your patience and the necessary perseverance to evolve in life. Your progress in life is likely to be gradual and prospering. Over time you will reach great personal maturity that will allow you to act with moderation and balance in every situation.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 6th house:

Your daily occupation is very important to you, and you are caring, sensitive and dedicated to your work. You are protective and very considerate of your co-workers or the personnel in your charge. Because of your great sensibility, you may change jobs often. You try to find the warmth of your home in your occupational area. You could do very well in any industry serving the public or in activities related to medicine, diet or therapy.

Moon Trine Mercury:

You have a rapid, imaginative, intelligent and retentive mind. If your customary work is related to some intellectual pursuit, you will be very successful. Otherwise you will have to seek a way of using your mental abilities by studying or writing, etc. This astrological influence could bring many trips and the possibility of communicating fluently with others. You have much common sense and your emotions are not likely to obstruct your reasoning.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Scorpio on 12th house cusp

You will have to learn to discharge your aggressiveness constructively and positively. You are endowed with a wealth of physical energy and it is important that you keep your body in action, because otherwise your inner anxiety will increase. If you don't thoroughly use your impulses or energy, you will run the risk of leaving many of your projects incomplete. You also tend to neglect the dictations of your own intuition and your ability to develop yourself in the world of metaphysics or the hidden sciences.

Throughout your life you are likely to have some jealous or violent encounters that will stop your progress. You may have to face secret or powerful enemies or in other areas of your life, you may have serious problems or fraudulent judgements.

 Chapter 3 *****

Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn).

To give and to receive.

EXPANSION: Jupiter in Libra

Your sense of expansion manifests through moderation and harmony. You like to advance in a progressive and gradual way. Ever since childhood you learned to see beauty everywhere. You are elegant and delicate; your friendliness attracts others and makes you very popular. You have a strong sense of justice and always defend the rights of others, even when it is not requested. Your search for inner balance could lead to excesses and also make you indecisive at times of making decisions. This influence is very favorable for any kind of association. Your material success depends on being in touch with the public.

Jupiter in 10th house:

You are likely to have great professional success with many opportunities to advance and grow. Because of your leadership ability, self-confidence and integrity, you would do well in law or as a manager in any company. Your material growth is bound to the application of your strong sense of justice and morality. You are proud, materialistic and ambitious, and will receive recognition at an early age. Your professional work will be extensive and you will feel that you have accomplished a great deal in your life.

Jupiter Sextile Venus:

You have a strong sense of justice and harmony. You tend to have an extensive social life and will receive support and cooperation each time you need it. You have a strong sense of aesthetics that will be reflected in your things, and you enjoy a well decorated, comfortable and warm environment without noises. Your positive attitude will bring you luck in general, and you are likely to obtain what you want without much effort. Because of this, you also could become a little lazy.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Taurus

The inhibition principle affects your own personal evaluation. You have a strong need for financial and emotional security, which makes you a bit apprehensive or rigid to face new things. You probably are not very comfortable having total freedom to do what you want. It is important that you have the help and collaboration of others, and that you avoid thinking that one must work hard to earn what one wants, because this alone can frighten you more. You can develop an incredible resistance to adversities in difficult times.

Saturn in 5th house:

You tend to be cold, not very demonstrative and inhibited. You are attracted to older people rather than those of your age. In spite of your shyness, you have very deep and loyal feelings. Your creativity could lean toward sciences and inventions. Your principal frustration will be the time or necessary ability to develop creative and artistic activities or entertainment. You will have to learn to enjoy pleasures more freely and to express your emotions and talents with all the intensity you have within you. Don't judge the results, simply enjoy what you are doing.

Saturn Square Venus:

You tend to feel unloved, rejected or indifference on the part of one of your parents (probably your father). This makes you shy and unable to demonstrate your emotions freely, and minimizes your ability to progress in life. Chronically discontented, you often sacrifice happiness for duty. You tend to be on the defensive and fear rejection and lack of acceptance. If you don't overcome your inner complex, this aspect could bring sentimental as well as economical failures and loneliness. To solve this problem, you have to evaluate each one of your talents, increase your own love, and rely on each of your goals without waiting for approval from others.

Saturn Trine Sun:

You have a good sense of organization and are able to direct your energies adequately to achieve success in life. You are stable, responsible and persevering. This astrological aspect enables you to achieve your goals thanks to your ability to concentrate and the confidence you have in yourself. You have a true sense of authority, which allows you to exercise it naturally. You will have good relationships with older people or those in powerful positions.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.

 Chapter 4 *****

Finances, source of income.

Work in relation to your employment.

Described below are some possible sources of income. They may coincide, or not relate at all to your professional vocation.

FINANCES: Capricorn on 2nd house cusp

Thanks to constant work, your financial progress in life will be slow and progressive. It is associated with an increase of maturity over time and because of this, you are likely to have some limitations, fluctuations or delays in material matters. You can excel in executive positions, in organization or in posts assuming large responsibilities. You will have to learn to manage your own possessions and earnings, and also to save for the future; that way you will avoid suffering reverses or difficulties.

If you don't maintain your self-esteem and high confidence, you may suffer financial frustrations and seek protection from your close relatives. You have to rely on your own initiatives.

Uranus in 2nd house:

You will have to earn money through special and original methods that allow you to feel free, otherwise you will be very unstable and change jobs frequently. Your financial situation tends to fluctuate and you will rarely have what would be considered a steady income. You could do well in fields related to inventions, sciences, astrology, electricity, computers, vehicles, or human relationships. With your great desire for independence, you would do better in your own business than working for others. You ignore the accepted value system and usually substitute your own. You might receive money through either inheritances or partners.

Ruler of 2nd house in 5th house:

Your income is related to creative endeavors, publications, entertainment, sports or arts, investments that imply certain risk or speculation, education or children. You are likely to earn money through some pursuit that will offer satisfaction and pleasure.

Earning money is in direct relationship to our self-esteem. If we consider ourselves valuable, money flows and comes into our lives. Work done with love and pleasure doesn't weigh us down and offers a better profit.

WORK IN RELATION TO YOUR EMPLOYMENT: Taurus on 6th house cusp

Your work in relationship to your employment will be expressed by your friendliness and good disposition. You like to work in harmony and without difficulties. You need to feel safe and protected by your superiors or the company you work for. If there are no other challenging aspects, you will have a very good relationship with your co-workers and superiors.

Moon in 6th house:

You are charismatic and considerate of the people you work with. You express strong feelings and give encouragement to others, which makes you very popular. If you don't receive the comfort or emotional response you need in your place of work, you may change jobs several times in your life. This position favors contact with the public.

 Chapter 5 *****

Your creativity and recreational activities.
Other skills and hobbies.

Hobbies are also part of our personality and through them, we express to a great extent our creative ability. It is important to enjoy our leisure activities and to complement them with our work or profession to reach greater balance. In our culture, we tend to place importance only on that which brings us money, thereby neglecting the expression of important parts of our personality.

YOUR CREATIVITY: Taurus on 5th house cusp

Your favorite recreational activities will be those that bring you in touch with earth; among them could be gardening, agriculture, as well as walking, camping in the woods or fields, horseback riding or mountain-climbing. Your creativity is stimulated by natural environments where you find peace, harmony and beauty. You also may be interested in manual activities such as arts and crafts, ceramics, sculpturing or carpentry. The idea of making money is always on your mind and this could decrease your peace and joviality. You may let your recreational development slide, if you don't consider it productive or necessary.

Saturn in 5th house:

Some of your pastimes could be: refinishing antique furniture, visiting historical places, climbing mountains or camping, writing articles about practical subjects, collecting fossil, antique clocks, archaeology or publishing first issue books, reading about afforestation, ecology, or the real estate market etc.

 Chapter 6 *****

Your vocation, profession, probability of success and social recognition.

Libra MC

Your destiny will involve you in activities that draw on your strong sense of justice, your love of harmony and artistic talent. You are very adaptable, patient and persistent in working toward your goals. You may seem flexible, but you have an inner resolve that no one can make you change. You will follow no one; you follow your own rules, but in an unobtrusive way. You find the best way of doing things without bothering others or calling attention to yourself. You usually forget any slights or offenses you may receive, but could harbor inner resentments which may cause you to "get even" when you feel that you are in a position to do so. Your inner world is very reserved and you always show a charming smile, a gentle and gracious manner, a soft voice and a humble attitude toward others. Diplomacy and personal charm are your best assets.

Your career choice could be one of the following professions: attorney, diplomat, judge, mediator, umpire, artist, fashion designer, cosmetologist, salesperson, barber, public relations or any other profession where you would be in contact with the public.

Jupiter in 10th house:

You are likely to have a lot of professional success, and many opportunities to advance and grow. Because of your leadership ability, honesty, and trust in yourself, you could excel in politics, the law, sales in general or reach a high position in a corporation. You have a deep sense of justice and morality. You are proud, materialistic and very ambitious, and will receive recognitions at an early age. Your professional work will be extensive and you will feel fulfilled in the future. This astrological position brings luck to advance in life.

Ruler of 10th house in 8th house:

Your professional success is related to your ability to produce changes or transformations in yourself as well as others. This astrological influence brings financial support from others that will help your career. That help could come from a financial institution as well as your marriage. Any kind of investigations would be very favorable.
